

Episode 2 - Adélie and Emperor Penguins: Quiz

1. How far is Cape Bird from Scott Base?
2. What type of penguins live there?
3. What is the rule when using the wharepaku?
4. What number is on the band of the adelic penguin they find?
5. What are adelies dependent on?
6. Why do adelies live together if they don't like each other?
7. Why is the ground brown?
8. What do scientists call penguin poo / tiko?
9. Why is Dean weighing birds as they go to sea and when they come back?
10. What is the name of the first colony of emperor penguins ever discovered?
11. How many species of penguins are there?
12. What is Gitte collecting?
13. Why are they collecting the guano?
14. Why can't Sonny smell the emperor penguin poo?
15. What is Gitte studying?

Episode 2 - Adélie and Emperor Penguins: Quiz Answers

1. How far is Cape Bird from Scott Base?
37 nautical miles (68.5km)
2. What type of penguins live there?
Adélie
3. What is the rule when using the wharepaku?
Leave the door open so people know you're in there.
4. What number is on the band of the adélie penguin they find?
30351
5. What are adélies dependent on?
Ice and fisheries
6. Why do adélies live together if they don't like each other?
Protect from the skua
7. Why is the ground brown?
Adélie poo
8. What do scientists call penguin poo / tiko?
Guano
9. Why is Dean weighing birds as they go to sea and when they come back?
To see how much food they have in their stomachs to give their chicks.
10. What is the name of the first colony of emperor penguins ever discovered?
Cape Crozier
11. How many species of penguins are there?
18
12. What is Gitte collecting?
Penguin guano (poo / tiko)
13. Why are they collecting the guano?
To see what their diet is / what the penguins are eating
14. Why can't Sonny smell the emperor penguin poo?
It's too cold
15. What is Gitte studying?
Foraging behaviour of the emperor penguins, finding out what they are eating and where they are going.